

Machine/Drivmatic Operator

Global Superior Personnel

Stuart, FL

Global Superior Personnel is seeking Machine/Drivmatic Operators for openings in Stuart, FL and to start as soon as possible for a long-term contract.

Job Duties but not limited to:

- Performs a variety of DrivMatic, riveting and structural assembly operations.
- Performs structural assembly, riveting and inspection operations of major components and assemblies.
- Approves and stamps acceptable assemblies that meet specifications and reject assemblies that do not meet requirements.
- Assures quality conformance to company/customer requirements and specifications. Responsible for assuring final quality acceptance of installations, configuration and operational response of mechanical systems, structures, components and controls.
- Adheres to all applicable safety and operational procedures and directives.
- Brings to the attention of supervision/lead, and documents all malfunctions, defects and damages of equipment, material and product.
- Keeps work areas clean and orderly.
- May be required to perform other duties as needed.

Requirements:

- Minimum of 5 years of experience in aircraft sheet metal and/or equivalent structural assembly.
- Understands engineering drawings, blueprints, quality procedures and instructions, operation sheet, procedures, worksheets and verbal instructions.
- Previous experience operating numerical control (NC) Drivmatic Riveting Machines, manual riveting machines or with robotics preferred.
- Must be able to work OT and weekends.
- CNC, Gemcor, Broetje, Drivematic, AR-32, and S2000 operators, and Machine riveters.